Our Creed:

I am a woman of influence. I am strong, creative, and resourceful. I embrace the path of positivity and possibilities as I leave behind dysfunction and negative behavior.

I empower myself with purpose, passion, and prosperity and know the key to my success is collaboration: with the Universe, my positive sisters and my inner Being.

I make a commitment to myself and to the world to spread love, kindness, and compassion wherever the path leads me. I am changing the world by transforming myself.

IPPW is a global organization, dedicated to creating opportunities for women; to inspire them to embrace and keep an optimistic attitude, to dream big, and become their true, authentic selves. IPPW is non-denominational, but members share a celebration of the Universe (or Spirit, or Higher Power, as you choose to interpret It,) a passion for positivity– and those who wish to be positive – people, as well as a desire to change the world for the better.

IPPW members support, encourage, and champion each other through difficult times and wonderful successes. We are “in the presence of positivity.” Osmosis in action.

IPPW creates opportunities: to grow and prosper, all while laughing, loving, and inspiring each other.

IPPW's "First Ever"

Bargain Shoppers Safari

When: June 14, 2014

Time: 8 am to 4 PM (or until the Bargains run out!)

Where: Debby's Cottage of Possibilities
27 Lyndeborough Road, Amherst, NH

Cost: Free to IPPW Members (non-Members $15)

A day of frolic and fun as we gather to embrace positivity and "retail" therapy. Our goal is to find amazing deals, steals and "just what you've been looking for" bargains and finds, as we scourer the region for the best places to shop.

Several years ago, Debby's friend Doris Cate opened her world to new possibilities by teaching her the art of consignment shopping, flea market finds and repurposing items into "one of a kind" treasures. Since then Debby and Doris have found all sorts of neat, out of the way places to treasure hunt and find incredible buys. Doris is the Master bargain hunter and Debby is her able bodied assistant ...

"Doris and I have sooo much fun doing this, we have decided to open the offer to all our positivity sisters, and thus the Bargain Shopper's Safari was born."

Our goal is to laugh, make new friendships and connections and hunt for incredible finds. Coffee, Tea and Muffins will start our day as we gather to learn what our fellow safari mates are looking for. Treasure maps will be provided and information swapped as we prepare for the hunt. Throughout the Safari, we will be connected with cell phones and cameras as we head out to the hunting grounds. We reconnect for lunch (at a secret location - meal costs are not included) and find the nourishment to continue on the quest.

To register or questions - contact Debby at: Debby@DebbyAdair.com or call 603-731-0116.
Bring your sunscreen, comfortable clothes and shoes and a vehicle to be able to transport your treasures.
This is going to be an amazing event.
