Presented by: Dr. Kevin Ross Emery, Managing The Gift, Inc.

Hosted by: Linda Kaye, CEO Space New England - 603-296-6215

NH Seacoast area native Dr. Kevin Ross Emery is a sought after leader, innovator, author, teacher, synergetic catalyst, mentor, motivational speaker, coach, consultant, and educator. He has a thriving consultancy business in Phoenix, AZ and has worked with such companies as American Express, Dartmouth College, Hilton, Sheraton and more. In the 80's, he was a driving force for the creation and implementation of training programs in the banking, retail, food and financial service industries. Dr. Kevin also works with children and successful business people - some who suffer from ADD-ADHD. He has been counseling and writing about ADD-ADHD for more than a decade and has determined it is not a disability but a gift of the evolutionary process.

What you will get out of the session:

- Business Networking with other local business owners
- Learn why a cooperative business networking model should replace a competitive networking model
