YDC Holistic Healing

1 Prospect St, Nashua, NH

Time: 6-8 pm

Need a positivity fix? I sure do.

With the Holidays fast approaching, all the craziness of this time of year and the feeling of "overwhelm" hanging over many of us ... I was thinking it might be fun to slow down, take a deep breath and share a few hours of positivity and possibilities.

Dear friend, Yvonne Dunyts has offered a gathering place for us ... her YCD Holistic Healing Center ... the perfect place to relax, refresh and re-imagine our lives.

In the Presence of Positive Women will provide pizza and conversation ... we welcome other goodies if you choose to share.

Our theme of the night will be Abundance. Come spend a few hours in the the presence of positivity and think about new possibilities for your future.

It just may be what you need to see the holidays through new eyes and a new perspective. And at the very least, it will be a few hours to take time for you.

No charge for the program ... Please RSVP (to be sure we have enough pizza to Debby@DebbyAdair.com. You are welcome to invite a friend. We love making new connections.

Questions? Call 603-731-0116.

And if we don't have a chance to connect in person ... allow me to wish you the best holiday season and you are being sent positive loving energy from afar.

Debby
