Healing the Spirit - Inspiring Change

Help! I'm Turning 60

...and need you to help me celebrate!

June 25, 2016 from 6 – 9 PM at

Opportunity Networks, 11 Caldwell Drive, Amherst, NH

I want to begin my next decade surrounded by family and friends. My birthday wish is to fill the room with positivity and premier my new one-woman show,

The Possibilities Chronicles

Many of you know my story... the first 30 years of life were spent in a negative funk. On my 30th Birthday I experienced a life-changing event that catapulted me into a whole new direction – Positivity. I've never looked back. To commemorate my last 30 years on this planet, I've written a 45-minute vignette.

Along with my wonderful husband Rick on guitar, several other performers have stepped up to sing, read poetry and maybe even tell a few jokes.

No Presents Please – Just your Presence

Please bring something to add to our Pot Luck dinner

Your adult friends/significant others are also welcome

For everyone who needs a Boost of Positivity this is the place to be - we've got plenty of room.

Please RSVP at IPPW.org/events or Debby@DebbyAdair.com

It won't be the same without you.
